

The Kolvin Service Adolescent Forensic Service

Information for referrers

Caring | Discovering | Growing | Together

Introduction

The Kolvin Service is an adolescent forensic mental health service that provides assessment and treatment for young people currently residing within the two secure children's homes in the North East of England (namely Kyloe House and Aycliffe Secure Centre).

The service is part of a wider provision of children and young people's forensic services delivered by Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust (NTW).

The Kolvin service provides:

- Completion of the mental health and neuro-disability sections of the Comprehensive Health Assessment Tool (CHAT) used across Aycliffe Secure Centre and Kyloe House with every young person.
- If a mental health or neuro-disability concern is identified by our nursing staff, a Tier 3 mental health service is available. Our team includes specialists in child and adolescent forensic psychiatry, clinical psychology, counselling, psychology and clinical nurse specialists.
- Tier 4 mental health service for young people with custodial sentences of 12 months or more from a team that includes specialists in forensic psychology, clinical psychology, a consultant in clinical and forensic psychology and a consultant in child and adolescent forensic psychiatry.

If Local Authorities require further assessment beyond that available, this can be commissioned on an individual basis. For further information contact our Team on 0191 245 6629.

The Kolvin Service operates Monday-Friday between the hours of 9am and 5pm; we do not provide emergency psychiatric cover.

If an emergency psychiatric opinion is required outside of these working hours please contact your local children and young people's crisis team.

Multi-disciplinary Team includes:

- Dr Alison Westman - Consultant Child and Adolescent Forensic Psychiatrist
- Dr Tim Diggle - Consultant Clinical and Forensic Psychologist
- Dr Aisling Martin - Senior Clinical Psychologist
- Dr Annette McKeown - Principal Psychologist
- Morag McLean - Clinical Pathways Lead
