

Preventing violence and aggression

Keeping our services safe for everyone

The staff in this Trust have the right to work in a safe and supportive environment.

Service users have a right to safe and therapeutic care.

People visiting our services have a right to be safe.

Violence against our staff, service users and visitors is a crime. We will take action against anyone who behaves in a violent or aggressive way.