

Research and Development Conference 2019 Agenda

(Subject to Change)

16th October 2019 – Britannia Hotel

09.15 – 09:30	Arrival and Registration
09.30 – 09:35	Welcome: Simon Douglas, Joint Director of Research, Innovation & Clinical Effectiveness
09.35 – 09:45	Chair's Welcome: Ken Jarrold, CNTW Chair
9.45 – 10:00	Professor Eileen Kaner - NIHR Applied Research Collaboration North East and North Cumbria – what is it and how might it benefit your work?
10.00 – 10.30	Key Note Speaker: Professor John O'Brien – Improving the Diagnosis and Management of Lewy body dementia: findings from the DIAMOND-Lewy Study
10.30 – 11:15	Research Session 1: Dr Rob Dudley – The use of virtual reality in helping people with psychosis: an overview of the gameChange study and progress to date Dr Guy Dodgson – Managing Unusual Sensory Experiences, a structured approach to treating voices. Dr Adi Sharma and Lynn Barron Millar – The needs of young people with bipolar disorder and their families: qualitative data from the FAB trial
11:15 – 11:55	Comfort Break (Refreshments Available)
11:15 – 11:55	Posters: Browse the gallery of research posters and chat with the presenters.	Stalls: Research Design Service MedConnect North Knowledge Studies NIHR Portfolio research currently recruiting Sign up to research registers
11:55 - 13:10	Research Session 2: Dr Jacqui Rodgers - Addressing Anxiety in Autism Spectrum Disorder: the role of uncertainty Dr Maria Avantaggiato-Quinn and Dr Su McAnelly - 'Behind Closed Doors' a carer perspective of Child SEND VCB violent and challenging behaviour.

	Kevin Hawkes - Young Smiles: an intervention for children and families living with parental mental health Dr Vicki Grahame, Sarah Jamieson and Lisa Slater - Paediatric Autism Communication Trial: Generalised into schools Dr Barry Ingham - Overcoming barriers to health care for autistic people
13:10 – 13:25	Jane Bourne - The drama of developing the role of a clinical academic researcher
13:25 – 14:25	LUNCH (posters and stalls)
14:25 - 14:55	Research Session 3: Dr Keith Reid - Maths should only be used in slides when it is absolutely necessary and proportionate: novel analyses of restrictive care Joe Horne - ASPECT
14:55 – 15:05	Comfort break
15:05 – 15:45	Lightening Talks: Nicola Crosby and Andrew Jay - A Nurse Led Clinic: Implementation and impact Sarah Robinson - Challenges and Barriers in transition from children to adult community learning disability services. Cerys Gittins - An exploration of Transforming Care and the impact on individuals with learning disabilities post Winterbourne... A critical review Rita Alli-Ojeme - Causes of stress leave among mental health workers in the NHS Dale Metcalfe – “Keeping people in the loop takes time” A qualitative exploration of clinician’s views on the screening and diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder in people with intellectual disability. Naoimh Fox - Investigation of neuropsychological markers for a diagnosis of dementia in routine practice
15:45 – 16:00	Poster Prize Presentation and Closing Remarks Simon Douglas, Joint Director of Research, Innovation & Clinical Effectiveness
16:00	FINISH