David Wheatcroft	Principal Clinical Psychologist	Community & Access Cumbria CBU	I have been invited to become a trustee (without any financial gain) on the board at the Triple A (All About Autism) Social enterprise in Penrith. I have discussed this with Stuart Beatson and Stella Moore who are supportive of my involvement with the project. We do not commission directly from Triple A and I have no financial gain in working with them as a volunteer in my own time. I will not be sharing (or have the opportunity to share) any commercially sensitive information with triple A. If there are any issues (in attending the board) that present a conflict in terms of sharing or receiving any information I will absent myself from any discussion. I am leading a piece of work for the N.East and N. Cumbria Operational Delivery Network looking at an autism pathway	09/01/2020	23/01/2020	Outside employment and my work with Triple A will only serve to support this. I was previously involved in reviewing paperwork (tender applications) for an autism project which was subsequently awarded to Triple A. My involvement in that work was to review and rate the tender applications only and the tender was awarded by Cumbria County Council. I would absent myself from any further / future reviews where I know that Triple A might make an application and will not involve myself in any tendering process that they might make.

I have made all of my colleagues in the CNTW Autism Assessment Service aware of my involvement in this project through a recent clinical governance meeting.
