Bolland, Mr. John Christopher	Manager	Individual Placement & Support Service Lead	Y	Y	Indirect interests	Loyalty interests	In 2023 I became involved in attending and occasionally facilitating a music group activity for people with mental health difficulties that occurs fortnightly on a Sunday at the Newcastle Recovery College in Newcastle Upon Tyne. The group is called 'All Frequencies Sound Collective Synth Club' and is a registered charity. The group is organised and primarily facilitated by Edward Warrington and John Warrington who are brothers. I attend the group in a personal capacity because I enjoy making music and have a personal and professional interest in mental health and supporting people who experience mental health difficulties. Edward Warrington is a member of staff in the service that I manage, CNTW IPS Service, as part of my paid role in CNTW NHS FT. I therefore have managerial responsibility for Ed during the week. John Warrington is Edward's brother and is a co-founder of the 'All Frequencies Sound Collective Synth Club', alongside Ed. John		19/01/2023

I occasionally see Edward and John outside of work in the context of this music group. I wish to be entirely transparent that I do not speak with Edward or John about my work or our IPS Service outside of work. We do not discuss anything that could lead to any unfair advantage or conflict of interest for John, Edward or I. In circumstances where I happen to be in a professional meeting in my role as IPS Service Lead and John Warrington is involved in his ICS role, I ensure that I declare my indirect interest, as does John Warrington, to ensure colleagues are aware of our potential loyalty interest and there are appropriate operational
