About Rose Lodge

Rose Lodge is part of Cumbria, Northumberland, Tyne and Wear NHS Foundation Trust. It is a treatment and assessment unit in Hebburn.

The unit is for men and women with a learning disability who have mental health problems or challenging behaviour.

At Rose Lodge there are doctors, nurses and other professionals who will help you get better.

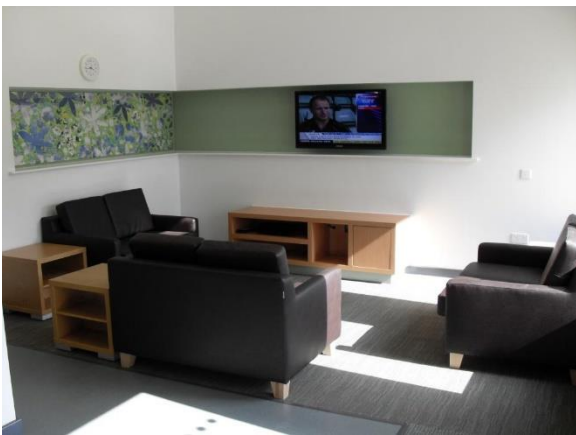

The ward has 12 bedrooms.

You will have your own bedroom with a shower and toilet.

There are also bathrooms and toilets.

There are separate areas for men and women to use.

You can use these if you want to relax or just to have some quiet time on your own.

There are small living room and dining room areas.

All the rooms are on ground level.

There are separate dining rooms and quiet areas. These rooms can also be used for therapeutic activities.

Outside Rose Lodge

During the nice weather you can use the garden.

There are areas used for therapeutic activities.

There are tables and benches in the garden. You can use this area to relax in.
